Directions

From downtown Houston take 45 North. Take the North Main Street exit and turn right. Turn right at North Street. Parking is past White Oak Music Hall on your right. Cross the street to Raven Tower, 310 North Street, Houston, Texas 77009.

Parking

Multiple parking lots are available across the street from White Oak Music Hall and Raven Tower. Park is also located near a METRO train station less than ¼ mile away.

Registration

Registration tables will be located at the entrance of the Raven Tower. Everyone must sign a registration form that includes a liability release section before heading off to the cleanup. Minors must have the form signed by their parent or guardian. You will be assigned a work zone, receive gloves, trash bags, a ticket for lunch, and a ticket for door prizes. In order to speed up registration procedures, school or scout groups should get their registration forms in advance and bring the completed forms to the event. You can print the form off the registration section on the Trash Bash website. If you have problems with printing the form, please call us at (713) 758-9123.

Area to be Cleaned

There will be several work zones along the banks of Little White Oak Bayou. NO CHILDREN should go into the water. Small children are invited to pick up trash in the interior areas of the park. We recommend that you wear and/or bring the following items: pants, sunscreen, hats, insect repellent, rubber boots, and raingear. No Sandals or flip-flops. We encourage you to bring a Rake if you have one.

Description of Cleanup

Volunteers are responsible to bring all trash bags back to the collection area. Return to the registration area by 11:00 am. Do not pick up medical waste, 55-gallon drums or hazardous materials. Tell the work zone captain the location and the proper authority will be called for their collection. Tires should not be put in the dumpster. Leave them piled near the dumpster.
